

WORK ON ARTS BLDG. MAY BEGIN IN DECEMBER

SUPPLEMENT IS AGAIN SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Cannot be Printed in Tabloid Form
STUDENTS' COUNCIL
Schedule of Dates for University Dances Presented and Accepted

That Saturday's issue of the Daily might be cut so that pages three and four might form a separate literary section, but that the make-up of the pages should not be changed was the decision arrived at, at a meeting of the Students' Council held yesterday afternoon. The Managing Board of the paper wished to have pages 3 and 4 of the Saturday issue separated from the first pages and made up in tabloid form as was last year's Supplement, but the Advertising Manager would not agree to this arrangement, forcing the matter back to the Council for final settlement. Allen Latham, Literary Editor of the Daily and Elmer MacLeod, Managing Editor, were present during the first part of the meeting and gave their views on the question. The tabloid form of publication was not accepted since it was considered that this would be a breach of several of the advertising contracts.

A schedule of dances presented by the Union House Committee was sanctioned by the Council. The Union House Dance is to be held on December 11, the two intercollegiate Christmas dances will take place on January 22 and February 12, while the Alma Mater is held for March 5. The Medical Dance will be held on the 20th of February, while the Junior Ball is likely to take place January 28th. The tentative date, November 20, was sanctioned for the holding of the Junior Prom.

A fifty dollar grant was voted the Annual Board to allow the Board to carry on with the opening of the new building for Old McGill 1927. Credit of one hundred dollars was granted to the players' club whose first production is to be given soon. The start in the Biological Building is to be rebuilt.

In reference to the term's end and while Revue it was stated that Sid Pierce and Hank Galt were very keen to do everything possible to help the production, and these two groups are expected to work with Gordie Hughes on the production committee.

VEHICLE FOR LITERARY EXPRESSION IS NEEDED AT MCGILL --- LEACOCK

The need for some kind of a journal which will afford to the students of McGill a proper vehicle of literary expression was stressed yesterday by Dr. Stephen Leacock, head of the Department of Economics and Political Science.

Dr. Leacock, pointing to the numerous literary publications in various colleges throughout the United States, maintained that they turn out a class of journal which McGill has not aspired to for nearly 25 years.

"I understand that the question of having a literary Supplement connected with the McGill Daily has become a subject of very keen controversy among the students," he declared. "I think it would be improper for me to interfere in any way in such a controversy and I prefer not to do so."

"But I would like to draw attention to what I think the urgent need at McGill for some kind of journal which will afford to the students a proper vehicle of literary expression and a proper training ground for learning to write."

JUNIOR PROM TO BE HELD NEXT MONTH

James V. Russell, Arts '27, Elected Chairman
NOVEMBER 20TH
Third Year Dance Expected To Be Better Than Ever

James V. Russell of Arts '27 was elected Chairman of the Junior Prom Committee for this year at a meeting of the representatives of the various faculties held last night in the Union. The meeting was well attended, every faculty except Law having their man on hand. Much discussion took place along general lines and a meeting has been called for 3 o'clock on Friday to start on the detailed work. The general idea of the committee seemed to be that a better year than ever will be put on this year, if the concentrated efforts of the men who are handling the event count for anything.

Ideas on the decorations, program, supper, orchestra and several of the more important details were discussed but nothing definite was done. It was decided to elect a secretary and business manager and to have sub-committees to look after decorations and other important details. Work on these will be commenced. Tickets may be quite limited this year, and as the dance is one of the blessed formal events of the season everyone will have to be on the go to be sure of getting in on the ground floor, authorities declared last night.

As far as it is known, November 20th will be the date for this affair. Something entirely new is to be planned in connection with the system of decorating and setting out places, but just what this will be is being kept a close secret by the committee until the night arrives.

Russell when interviewed stated that he desired a full attendance at the next meeting on Friday and that the members would get started on the real business then.

Students will probably be asked to contribute material which could be incorporated in the Revue. The Council passed a resolution regarding the publication in the Daily of the editorial entitled, "Canada's Crisis" where the Council maintains a strictly neutral attitude in matters political.

POSTPONE SESSION MOCK PARLIAMENT

Executive Decides to Wait Until After Elections

"In view of the fact that the elections tomorrow would completely overshadow our Mock Parliament it has been deemed advisable by the executive of the Literary and Debating Society to postpone it," Arthur O. Lloyd, president of that organization declared last night.

"We had been looking forward to a very keen debate this evening but inasmuch as the coming election has diverted so much of the student interest we found that it would be far better to hold it a week or so later when the various leaders of the Mock Parliament, who are active on other platforms in the city at present would be able to attend."

"There is to be a meeting of the executive this afternoon when the date will be set. I re-emphasize that all students are members of the Parliament and that it is one of the most significant of undergraduate activities. I sincerely trust that it will meet this year, with the success which has attended its sessions in the past."

SCIENCE FROSH-SOPH BANQUET OCTOBER 29

The Freshman year of Science announce the Freshman-Sophomore banquet to be held at the Queen's Hotel at 7:30 on Thursday night Oct. 29th. The Dean of the Faculty, lecturers to the first year and those Sophomores who were Freshman last year, will be the guests. Those Sophomores who were not in Science '25 last year and who wish to attend can secure tickets from Ernest Viberg. In all there will be some hundred and fifty in attendance. Undergraduate authorities express the hope that Doctor Sullivan will meet the popular demand and be present.

SPRINGFIELD PRAISES MCGILL SOCCER TEAM

That McGill has won a unique position for itself in the intercollegiate soccer world was the opinion expressed by the Springfield press in view of McGill's victory over the Springfield College team recently. McGill holds the intercollegiate soccer title of Canada, having won it last year by defeating the Royal Military College and the University of Toronto. The following is a report of the game on Saturday by a Springfield paper.

"For the first time on its home field in four years, Springfield College soccer team tasted defeat from a powerful team from McGill University at Pratt field. The local team jumped away to an early lead when Neale scored the first goal in the first minutes of play, giving Springfield a lead of 1 to 0 at the half. This was destined to be the limit of Springfield's scoring for McGill displayed the best forward line ever seen on the local field scored three goals in a rapid and effective drive in the final period. Moffat, Archdale and Denny accounted for the markers of the victory. About 400 spectators saw the game."

HOW MUCH DOES A STAGE DANCER EARN?

As in every other line of endeavor, the financial rewards of stage dancing vary with the individual ability and opportunity. Evelyn Law, for instance, sensationally successful star in the "Follies" and "Louie the 14th", receives $750.00 a week! She began at $75.00 per week in 1921. Ann Pennington, internationally famous stage star, starting in the current "Follies" has received as much as $2,000 a week in vaudeville. Marilyn Miller, while playing "Sally" earned around $4,000 per week for 80 weeks in New York and long after that on tour. Gilda Gray, recently touring the United States, earns fabulous sums—as high as $20,000 in a single week! Fred and Adele Astaire, starting in that remarkable success "Lady Be Good", received $5,000 per week from a supper club engagement aside from their theatrical salary which is in four figures.

MUSICAL ASSOCIATION
There will be an important meeting of the Musical Association this afternoon at 4:45.

DIRECTORY

In order to facilitate the work of publishing the Student's Directory, all student should see that their home and city address, and telephone numbers are entered on the lists now in the hands of the class executives as the work of publishing the Directory cannot proceed until all lists are completed. Partial students in Arts will find a list on which they should personally enter this information, in the Arts building.

R.V.C. HISTORY OUTLINED BY MISS HURLBATT

Had 8 Students First; Now More Than 300

S. C. A. RECEPTION

Only Women's College in Canada Chartered and Endowed

"Students should be the most rational of beings, the most accurate in thought and word and deed; the least reckless—though the most intellectually adventurous; the most independent and the least swayed by the emotion of the crowd, though the most friendly and tolerant, knowing how easy it is to make mistakes." In these words Miss Hurlbatt, Warden of the Royal Victoria College summed up her address to an immense crowd of women students at the Freshie Reception in the R. V. C. Convocation Hall yesterday afternoon.

Miss Hurlbatt opened her address by giving an outline of the origin of the Royal Victoria College and the record of the graduates, because, she said the graduates of the Donalds Department and the R. V. C. have also been pioneers in fields of work which have now recognized departments in the University.

"To enlighten new women students at McGill and give them a glimpse of College history the Warden explained that a Ladies Educational Association existed long before women were admitted to the University and it operated from 1870 to 1884 providing courses of lectures generally given by McGill professors."

"The lady who was Secretary of this" said Miss Hurlbatt "became later Secretary of this College and only retired in 1914 and is still living in Montreal and is as interested as ever in all that concerns the College and students."

"In 1884 Donald D. Smith, later and better known as Lord Strathcona, was visited by several aspiring young women who begged him to help them obtain a University Education. He responded by arranging with Sir William Dawson, then Principle of McGill, to provide what became known as the 'Donald Endowment' for the higher education of women in the faculty of Arts and as soon as possible create a College in the McGill for the same purpose."

The Donalds Endowment provided that degrees in the Faculty of Arts were to be granted to women on exactly the same terms as to men, with identical examinations. The first class of eight women was presented for degrees in 1888.

"The ultimate object of Lord Strathcona was the competition of his gift by the creation of a College with a Resident Staff and provision for resident as well as non-resident students. This object was achieved by the building and endowment of the College in which we are assembled to-day and which was first occupied in 1890 and formally opened in 1901 by the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York. The College now operates under Royal Charter and is the only chartered and endowed University College for women in the Dominion."

Miss Hilda Oakley was the first Warden, Mrs. Vaughan, then Miss Cameron and Mrs. Leithensten, both present today, were on the resident staff from the beginning, and in addition there was Miss Milhous, now Madame Birch, a predecessor of Miss Bonnet, whom we welcome to College this season.

"The number of students has greatly increased since the early days and the graduation class of eight in 1888 became 49 in 1925, our highest number was 51 in 1923. Present students over 300 in number, will know that the strength of a college, as of a university, lies not in the number of its students, but in the quality of the work they do and the distinction and

URGES MEN TO LIVE CLEAN LIFE

Dr. W. S. Hall Addresses Students On "Efficient Manhood"

In an address which deeply impressed his audience, Dr. Winfield Scott Hall told a number of McGill men at the Union yesterday afternoon how to get the best out of their youth and become real virile specimens of manhood. The title of his talk was "Efficient Manhood."

The meeting was opened by Col. Boyce, who introduced the speaker as Professor Emeritus of Medicine of North-Western University, and a great critic of physical culture. The speaker delved into his subject from the start, mentioning that during the war, he had examined over 500,000 soldiers and had taken note of the many defects and qualities in their physical structure. Dr. Hall emphasized the importance of a clean life, especially in the first stages of the development of virility, from the age of fourteen to eighteen.

The speaker then described the result of his long life and illustrated his points by diagram. In a clear and concise manner, the audience showed their gratitude by continued applause.

To-day Dr. Hall will speak to the M. S. P. E. and the Graduate Nurses at noon in the R. V. C. on the "Sociology of Youth and its relation to social development." He will also address the women on "Efficient Womanhood."

MEDICAL LECTURE FOR C.O.T.C. GROUP

The first meeting of the Medical Unit of the C. O. T. C. will be held at the New Medical Building to-night at 8 o'clock. There will be a lecture on "Organization of the Army as for War," followed by a demonstration of "Field, Surgical and Medical Procedures."

The object of this course is essentially that of training future officers. There will be instruction in the application of bandages and splints and opportunities will be given of applying the knowledge so obtained.

This course concerns primarily those who intend to adopt the profession of medicine. It is also of interest to those desirous of preparing themselves for a national emergency.

At the end of the course an opportunity will be given those desirous of sitting for Certificate "A" that is ability and eligibility to hold a Lieutenant's commission in the R. A. M. C. or in the R. C. A. M. C.

ROOTERS' BAND HARD AT WORK FOR GAME

"On to Toronto" was the sentiment expressed at a rehearsal of the band which was held yesterday at 5 o'clock in the Union. Quite a number of men turned out to the practice and much new music which has been purchased recently was played.

The same enthusiasm which was shown by the band on all their previous appearances is being shown in carrying on their work. That great improvement in playing has been made since the beginning of the term, in the opinion of Bandmaster Casey. It is interesting to note that authorities state that the neat and smart appearance of the uniformed band is revealed well by the Pathe Nova pictures which are being shown at the downtown theatres this week.

It should be stimulating to present students to fall they must try to live up to the distinction of those early up to the distinction of those early (Continued on Page 3)

CANCEL LECTURES AFTER FOUR P.M.

As the Government has proclaimed a half holiday on Thursday, 29th instant (which may or may not be observed) it has been decided to cancel lectures and laboratory work at 4 p.m. on that day, and to leave the question as to whether or not any further time should be allowed to the decision of the Dean of each faculty.

J. A. NICHOLSON, Registrar.
October 28th, 1925.

WORK ON NEW STRUCTURE TO BE UNDERTAKEN BEFORE THE NEW YEAR IS CLAIM

Statement Emanates from Authoritative Source — Architectural Plans Nearly Complete — Authorized to Apply for Tenders — New Building Should be Ready for October, 1926.

"There is a very strong likelihood that operations on the long-awaited new Arts Building will be commenced in December." This statement was issued yesterday by a person in high authority at the administration building.

The Architectural plans for the proposed new building are now practically complete. The architects have been fully authorized to apply for tenders. This means that as soon as a favourable price is secured operations will begin.

According to the authority from whom the information was received the work should be well under way during the Christmas holidays. The reason advanced for beginning work at this time of the year is that it would enable the builders to complete their work on time for the opening of the 1926-27 session next October.

Lectures Will Be Given In The Other Buildings

Arts students will be accommodated in the other buildings around the campus. This means that undergraduates of "McGill College" will be taking their lectures in the Biological, New Medical and Physics Buildings. Possibly also the Presbyterian College and the Royal Victoria College will be used.

At a meeting held towards the end of last year the Board of Governors definitely decided that one of the University's most pressing needs was a new home for the Faculty of Arts. Progress was made during the summer months when the matter was placed in hands of the building committee. The matter reached its height with the announcement from the administration building yesterday afternoon.

No new information could be obtained as to interior appointments but in all probability the plans will be similar to those outlined by Dean MacKay last year. At the end of last session the Dean said:

"Two difficult questions concern the room view of the Arts Building and the construction of Moyse Hall. How much can be done towards maintaining roughly the present site and outward appearance of the building while attempting to incorporate in it necessary conveniences? This is one problem that must be solved."

"In the interior of the new building the designers meet with a second difficulty. Present plans point towards the construction of a model Demonstration Theatre which will combine a maximum of utility with the greatest internal beauty and design, so far as is consistent with the funds at the disposal of the Board. This will be the Moyse Hall with a seating capacity of between four and five hundred. There is very little likelihood that any larger room will be built."

Dean MacKay stated. There have been some rumours that some sort of a community theatre that would accommodate eight or nine hundred people might be built, but these are entirely unfounded in the Dean's opinion. The Moyse Hall will be a lecture room for the larger classes of the Arts Faculty and will have special acoustic properties which will lessen the strain on a lecturer's voice.

SHORT SHIRTS, BOBBED HAIR, LOOSE CLOTHES FAVOURED BY DR. HARVEY

That the short skirts, the loose apparel, the bobbed hair of the flapper of to-day has it all over her Victorian grandmother, smothered in crinolines, dresses and chin-high collars, is the opinion of Dr. F. W. Harvey, McGill Medical Advisor. "Wear just enough clothes to keep you warm—no more. Freedom of movement is necessary to good health," he stated, when interviewed yesterday.

Dr. Harvey, who is a McGill graduate in the Arts class of '94, and of the Medicine class of '98, has been examining the students at McGill for 20 years. The health of the student of today compares favourably with that of the student of 30 years ago, he declared. This Dr. Harvey attributes to the greater attention which is now paid to the physical requirements of students, both men and women. Both must devote more time to physical development than was exacted years before.

Compulsory physical training came in only during the war, when it was felt that the muscular development of the student was more necessary than ever.

Physical examination for those taking part in college athletics dates back to 1896. On organized college sports Dr. Harvey did not have very much to say, except that he thought that every man who is able should partake of some form of university athletics.

He pointed out, however, the need of adequate physical examination for those participating in these sports, since the entrance into strenuous games are decidedly injurious to those who are not physically fit. Overdoing sport is dangerous.

Another factor in the fostering of physical perfection among students is the college medical service. McGill is the only Canadian university which maintains such an establishment. The

CHARLESTON MAD

Hey, Hey,
Hee, Hee,
Charleston
Worries me,
Fascinates,
Shakes my feet;
Aggravates,
Can't be beat.
Heel out,
Toe in,
Turn around,
Start again,
Twist that knee,
Sip and glide,
Scuff that foot,
Kick and slide.
Out home,
Here, there;
In town,
Everywhere,
Watch 'em strut,
See 'em step,
Gran and dad,
Got that pop.
Help! Help!
Hold me,
Stop! Stop!
Scold me,
You see I've Got it bad—
'Nether one's
Charleston Mad!
—Byrne Macfadden

McGill Daily

THE OLDEST COLLEGE DAILY IN CANADA.

The Official Organ of the Student's Society of McGill University
Member of Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

Published Every Day Except Sunday by
THE STUDENTS' COUNCIL
Lancaster 7141.

After 10.00 p.m. and during Sundays and Holidays, Lancaster 7690.

PRESIDENT: T. F. M. NEWTON, B. A.
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: T. M. GORDON.
MANAGING EDITOR: E. D. MacLEOD, B. A.
ADVERTISING MANAGER: G. H. FLETCHER, B. A.

R. V. C. Editor: M. W. MacLennan. R. V. C. Asst. Editor: A. Archibald.
Night Editors: M. Gilman and B. Green.

NEWS BOARD

Intercollegiate Editor: T. H. Harris, '26
Assignment Editor: D. A. L. MacDonald, '27
Literary Editor: A. B. Latham, '26

J. J. Brierley, '26
C. L. Copland, '26
C. H. Davies, '27
L. Edel, '27
J. R. Frith, '27
A. R. Harkness, '27
A. H. K. Oxley, '27
R. L. Williams, '25

IN CHARGE OF THIS ISSUE
LEO EDEL.

STAFF

Barsha, Godinsky, Morrison, Rountenberg, Schacter, Schwartz, Shapiro, Smilevitz, Spector.

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1925.

THE COMING OF BLISS CARMAN.

McGill University is to welcome once again a noted man within its walls, and this time it is to be a man of letters, who, by his copious industry and the blessings of a great genius, has achieved the foremost rank among Canadian poets. Bliss Carman has often read his poems and discussed them in the presence of the undergraduates here. But he has, on such occasions, appeared for the brief space of an hour, and then has gone onward, leaving behind only the memory of a dignified and serious student, as well as an outstanding message concerning the art which is his.

Gratifying it is, therefore, to learn that the English Department has taken such a splendid step in bringing to McGill this great Canadian poet, and that he will spend a full month in the lecture halls of the university. Bliss Carman comes with a vital message to the students of McGill. He comes as a poet who has successfully practised his art for many years. And this time he comes not merely to read his work, not merely to discuss it in general, but to lecture, to meet personally some of the students and to place before them his ideas about literature and about life. Therein lie the vast benefits which should accrue to those who will have the good fortune to come into contact with him during his stay here.

But Bliss Carman, we are told, will bring more than a message concerning the art and its significance. He comes, too, with practical advice for those who have revealed at McGill that they can create poetry. The Literary Supplement last year brought out several writers who should in time, as they reach maturity, and as they make further progress in their art, take up a dominant position among Canadian men of letters. It is to these men and women that Bliss Carman will bring details of his experiences, in addition to numerous practical hints. And he will probably be instrumental in discovering many writers who have not ventured to contribute to student publications at McGill, but who have quietly pursued their work, attempting to improve it as much as possible.

And so it is that McGill will greet Bliss Carman not only as a poet, a thinker, and a man of letters—but as a writer who comes to contribute to the studies of the students a new current in that rich stream of cultural endeavour which exists at McGill. It is to be hoped that the experiment of the English Department will meet with that success which such a venture truly deserves.

ELECTION INTERVIEWS.

We publish elsewhere in to-day's issue interviews with each of the candidates in the St. Lawrence-St. George division, in which riding McGill University is situated. The men have in brief form given an outline of their platforms, and it is with the hope that the students who have a vote in this constituency will glance at these and use them in some measure in the formation of their opinion of the respective men in the field, and the candidate for whom they vote, that they are published. It is extremely vital that every student who has the vote use it as his convictions dictate. The college man's ballot is truly the significant one on election day.

THE QUARTETTE.

At 3.30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon students will be afforded the opportunity of hearing the Hart House String Quartette—an organization which is doing splendid work in bringing to its audiences such chamber music as is not frequently heard. It was the great delight of many of the Masters to compose for four instruments, and as a result some of their finest works are written for string quartettes. An opportunity of hearing some of these does not come frequently, and McGill students would do well to turn away from the heat of the election fight to spend an hour or two in the R.V.C. listening to the playing of the finished artists, who are to come here.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Daily is not responsible for sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculty will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE SIDE OF THE PAPER ONLY.

No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

Editor,

McGill Daily:
Sir—As a sequel to the Harold Lloyd affair of the last senior rugby suggestions to the Scarlet Key So-game played here we have the most degrading piece of foolisness that McGill University could possibly be tricked into. Harold Lloyd, first clown of the United States, presents us with a cup for athletic competition. If we accept we fall victim to Yankee advertising methods.

Let us hope that the officials of the University will prevent this indignity from going any further.

Yours,

P. A. C.,
Science '28.

Oct. 27th, 1925.

The Editor,

McGill Daily:
Sir—May I offer the following suggestions to the Scarlet Key So-

ST. LAWRENCE --- ST. GEORGE CANDIDATES OUTLINE THEIR PLATFORMS IN INTERVIEW

Manifold Aspects of Election Problem Discussed by Two Men — Both University Graduates Who Have Had Successful Careers.

Canada goes to the polls to-morrow. In the division in which McGill University is situated a number of McGill students will cast their vote—many for the first time.

St. Lawrence-St. George is one of the outstanding ridings in the Dominion. The contest which is now in its last stages, is a hot one, and it is conceded that the two candidates represent the best men either party could name in this section. Both are university graduates and men who have attained the highest rank in their chosen professions.

With a view to presenting to the students of McGill the platforms of the candidates each one was duly interviewed. Their statements are given below.

C. H. CAHAN K.C.,
Conservative Candidate

At the outset of the interview C. H. Cahan K.C. declared that the issues in the election are vital ones and deserve serious consideration from all who have a vote.

Mr. Cahan urged adequate protection for all Canadian industries and for all Canadian workers.

"I stand for the reduction and gradual abolition of the almost endless chain of vexatious war taxes which are now levied directly upon the people and which not only discourage business enterprise in Canada but give an unfair advantage to producers in foreign countries," Mr. Cahan declared.

"I stand for a vigorous immigration policy," he continued. "A policy which will not only bring suitable settlers to Canada but also help to establish their permanent homes here."

"Then there is the question of the upholding of the rights of minorities. I will consistently oppose any attempt to re-write the Confederation Pact by curtailing the powers which are now vested in the Senate, for the protection of provincial and minority rights."

"We must have the co-operation of the railways of this country to eliminate overlapping and waste; but there must be no amalgamation of the existing railway systems without the express consent of the Canadian people at a general election held for that purpose. I stand too far the abolition of costly commissions of enquiry; for the cessation of appropriations which solely serve sectional demands; for the curtailment of all costly luxuries and for the conduct of all the departments of the public services upon strictly business lines."

"Canadian workers should have a preferential opportunity in the development of their own natural resources."

"We must have, too, timely measures for imposing increasing restrictions upon the export to foreign countries of our pulp, our minerals and our hydro-electric power."

"I stand for no needless loosening of the Imperial tie, but for the development of an autonomous Canada within the Commonwealth of Nations, which shall express the combined character and individuality of the two great races of which our Canadian people are composed."

In Mr. Cahan's opinion it is the Conservative party only which will take in hand existing conditions for the good of Canada.

cety, in order that they may undertake two important but hitherto neglected acts of hospitality.

1.—That one or more of the members should receive the necessary technical instruction in making inquiries to the satisfaction of the visiting football teams. To ensure the perfect play I am sure they might enlist the ardent co-operation of the departments of Architecture, Surveying and Household Science.

2.—That some senior member of the Department of Zoology should be elected to the Society as Honorary Curator and Entertainer of Visiting Mascots.

Yours, etc.,
QUI MAL Y PENSE.

The Editor,
McGill Daily.

Dear Sir—McGill has just received what may be termed an offer of marriage from the moving picture world. Permit me to suggest that this moribund match be not consummated.

The facts are these. The manager of one of Montreal's largest picture palaces has become interested in McGill sport because the pantomime during the game with Queens was a good advertisement for one of his coming productions. Acting as the excellent manager he undoubtedly must be, he takes it upon himself to ask Harold Lloyd to advertise still further the said coming production by presenting a trophy to McGill for competition with the M. A. A. A. Harold Lloyd has realised the value (in dollars and cents) of the idea, and has adopted the suggestion made to him, stipulating only that the trophy be called "Harold Lloyd Rugby Trophy," so that the element of advertisement may be in no danger of being forgotten during the excitement which this competition may arouse. Mr. Shangness, speaking for the large body of opinion which he undoubtedly represents, has taken it upon himself to say that McGill will become a party to this advertisement. Let any one should be labouring under the delusion that motives of sportmanship have actuated this commercial venture, the manager in question has been good enough to announce to The Daily "Of course it must be remembered that the trophy is being presented through the interest McGill has shown in the coming picture 'The Freshman' which Harold Lloyd has dedicated to the College of which he is a graduate."

I have little hope, Mr. Editor, that McGill will turn down this offer, after the adoption of the Scarlet Key Society it would be inconsistent with our accepted policy to refuse the trophy. I write merely to give some expression to the opinion of a small minority about McGill, who have a conception of what a University should be, and what University sport should be, which compels them to look upon the offer as being something nearer an insult than a act of generosity.

Yours faithfully,
F. R. SCOTT
Law '27.

Friendship cannot be ideal unless it becomes spiritual; there must be a fellowship in the deepest things of the soul—a sympathy with the best endeavours.

HON. H. M. MARLER N.P.,
Liberal Candidate

At the outset of the interview Hon. Mr. Marler stated in reply to those who had attacked his entry into the cabinet that he had not been asked to give up any of his views when he had entered it and that he had not given any of them up since his entry.

Federal taxation can and will be reduced owing to the great economies in expenditures carried through by the present Liberal Government, which has spent $243,000,000 less than did the Conservative Government in its last three years of administration. Mr. Marler stated.

To render employment profitable he further said, markets for manufacturers and others engaged in various fields must be extended not only at home but abroad.

He pointed out the increase in trade under the Liberal Government. In 1922 there was a balance of trade of six millions while in 1925 there has been a balance of nearly $300,000,000 meaning that Canada has nearly that amount to distribute in the country.

The progress made as regards the railways is to be seen in the fact that for the two years in which they were in the hands of the Conservatives the operating deficit came to nearly $40,000,000 whereas for the three years under Liberal administration there have been operating surpluses of more than $30,000,000.

"As regards the traffic I am a moderate protectionist," Mr. Marler said. He stated that he believes in the establishment of a 1925 tariff advisory board, and urged that a tariff should be created which would take into consideration the requirements of the manufacturer as well as of the consuming public. He was most persistent that the only method in which such a tariff could be created would be through the tariff board instead of the old hit and miss method by the Minister of Finance or two or three members of the cabinet.

Canada has emerged from a serious period of depression and it is now a question of a government with a broad Canadian viewpoint. In Mr. Marler's opinion it is the Liberal Government only which will take in hand existing conditions for the good of Canada.

ing the excitement which this competition may arouse. Mr. Shangness, speaking for the large body of opinion which he undoubtedly represents, has taken it upon himself to say that McGill will become a party to this advertisement. Let any one should be labouring under the delusion that motives of sportmanship have actuated this commercial venture, the manager in question has been good enough to announce to The Daily "Of course it must be remembered that the trophy is being presented through the interest McGill has shown in the coming picture 'The Freshman' which Harold Lloyd has dedicated to the College of which he is a graduate."

I have little hope, Mr. Editor, that McGill will turn down this offer, after the adoption of the Scarlet Key Society it would be inconsistent with our accepted policy to refuse the trophy. I write merely to give some expression to the opinion of a small minority about McGill, who have a conception of what a University should be, and what University sport should be, which compels them to look upon the offer as being something nearer an insult than a act of generosity.

Yours faithfully,
F. R. SCOTT
Law '27.

Friendship cannot be ideal unless it becomes spiritual; there must be a fellowship in the deepest things of the soul—a sympathy with the best endeavours.

"Let me remember," says Haldane, "when I find myself inclined to pity a criminal, that there is likewise a pity due to the country."

TURRET MILD VIRGINIA CIGARETTES

20
FOR 25¢

The Queen of Spades
And all her Maids
Sedately pace the sands;
And softly cry
To passers-by
"Play save us 'Poker Hands'."

PURLOINED PARAGRAPHS

Let me tell you, Scholar, that Diogenes walked on a day, with his friend, to see a country fair; where he saw ribbons, and looking-glasses, and nut-crackers, and fiddles, and hobby-horses, and many other gim-cracks; and, having observed them, and all the other flummurbs that make a complete country-fair, he said to his friend, "Lord, how many things are there in this world of which Diogenes hath no need!" And truly it is so or might be so, with very many who vex and tell themselves to get what they have no need of. Can any man charge God, that he hath not given him enough to make his life happy? No, doubtless; for nature is content with a little. And yet you shall hardly meet with a man that complains not of some want; though he, indeed, wants nothing but his will; it may be, nothing but his will of his poor neighbour, for not worshipping or not flattering him; and thus, when we might be happy and quiet, we create trouble to ourselves.

IZAACK WALTON

There is no saying shocks me so much as that which I hear very often; that a man does not know how to pass his time. 'Twould have been but ill spoken by Methusalem in the nine hundred sixty-ninth year of his life; so far it is from us, who have not time enough to attain to the utmost perfection of any part of any science, to have cause to complain that we are forced to be idle for want of work.

COWLEY

Man is always at war with, or wondering over, himself or his neighbours or his gods, and he needs must tell all three what he thinks about them. Through the ages the net output of his dreams and imaginings has come to be known as literature.

Nevertheless, many men have given all they possess of passion, experience and art to the making of it. Some have given their integrity also. But the fabric of the work to which they have given themselves is the one human creation which withstands time. And in no land has there been more wasteful or superb giving than in England.

KIPLING

Business men boast of their skill and cunning; but in philosophy they are like little children. Bragging to each other of successful depredations, they neglect to consider the ultimate fate of the body. What should they know of the Master of Dark Truth who saw the wide world in a Jade cup, by illumined conception got clear of Heaven and Earth; on the Chariot of Mutation entered the Gate of Immutability?

CH'EN TZU-ANG (7th century)

With regard to myself, I have ever been a thinking—and who would think it?—rather than an active being. My mind indeed has been an Errant Knight, but my body only a simple Squire—and it has been so harassed and chivalric with the wanderings and the wind-mills of its master, that it has long wished to quit the service—frequently crying out with Sancho, "a blessing on his heart who first invented sleep."

However, notwithstanding the natural indolence of this same body of mine, I have contrived to fulfill, completely, all the characteristics of man—which some philosopher species to be these four:

To build an house—

To raise a tree—

To write a book—

And

To get a child.

LAURENCE STERNE

I overheard a boy in the Nook say that he was dissipated in love. I suppose he meant disappointed, but after all it amounts to the same thing. The use of the word is a matter of prejudice anyway.

St. Lawrence-St. George Division

On October 29th

VOTE FOR

Herbert Marler

Liberal Candidate

Central Committee Room

471 Union Avenue

Plateau 2483

"SLEEPY" HALL OF YALE

invites you to hear him play during

Tea, Dinner and Supper Dances

at the

Mount Royal Hotel

McGill Lady Students

Hair Service of Individuality.

A shingle or semi-shingle is the latest cut and fashion. Charming trimmed to the shape of your head, it is the complete expression of your personality.

Don't walk into any Ladies' Hair Shoppe for a shingle when you can have an expert and enjoy the comfort of being in a most sanitary and the best ventilated room.

With or without appointments, and it costs no more.

Permanent Waving, Marcel Waving, Tinting, Shampooing, Manicuring.

Our five men hair shinglers are one hundred per cent. perfection.

Potvin's Limited

Kofoer Bldg.,

706 St. Catherine West, at MacKay

Tel. Uptown 5528—1040—4008

Hart House STRING QUARTETTE

Recital in the form of a general rehearsal

Thursday at 3.30

in

R. V. C.

For Faculty and Students at the University

RUGBY.

INTERMEDIATE RUGBY SQUAD TRAINING HARD

R.V.C. FRESHIE RECEPTION A BIG SUCCESS

Numerous Addresses at Annual Event

MANY GAMES Activities Are Outlined To Newcomers by Presidents

Freshettes and Upper classmen assembled at four o'clock yesterday in the Convocation Hall of the R. V. C. for the annual Freshie Reception when larger and more enthusiastic crowd of co-eds than ever before turned out for the event. The Freshies easily distinguished by their bright green bows were placed to the hall by the sophomores, juniors and seniors and were received at the door by Miss Hurlbatt and Madame Furness. Immediately after this each girl was presented with a tag on which her name was written to wear for purposes of identification. Thus decorated they wandered about the room talking with girls they already knew and with others whom they had not met before, so that a spirit of contagious friendliness was soon pervading the atmosphere.

When the last arrival had received her tag, everybody sat down to hear a few words from the president of the Students' Christian Association, Miss Madeline De Blois, who extended the welcome of the S. C. A. to all the new-comers and urged them to throw off the "unnecessary" feeling which she knew a good many of them had been wearing. Miss Hurlbatt then arose and addressed the girls speaking of the founding of the college, its ideals cherished through the past, and its fondest hopes for the future. She was heartily applauded.

Following her the president of the R. V. C. Music Club, Miss L. Hurd, Miss Ratner of La Societe Francaise, Miss L. Nixon of the Delta Sigma Society, and Miss De Blois of the Students' Christian Association, spoke each regarding their respective associations, explaining their practical activities and inviting all interested to join with them in their meetings. The remarks from these representatives were as a new number to former Reception Programmes and gave the student a splendid conception of what is going on all about them and to what they may if they wish lend their personalities and personal abilities.

Miss Amaron then suggested games. For the first of these all took hands forming and inside and an outside circle. To music they marched around the room and halted and right-about-faced when the music stopped. Then they engaged in conversation with the girl happening to be opposite them with the object of discovering as much about each of them as would be possible in the time allotted. The hubbub that ensued during these conversations was tremendous. At the blow of the whistle two from the number were called to the middle of the room to tell the audience what facts they had been able to glean in these short periods. Not many cherished secrets were disclosed but a great deal of general information floated freely about.

RECEIVED BEANS

At their entrance to the hall each girl had received in amazement and utter stupefaction three beans which they were told to guard closely. But their use became plain in the second game which Miss Amaron organized. The girls were told to wander freely among each other and ask as many questions as possible in the hopes of receiving the direct answer "Yes or No" and when questioned themselves to avoid this response or forfeit a bean. A prize was awarded to the one who had the largest number of beans when time was called. Miss Silvia Bramson was the winner here.

When refreshments were announced immediately following this the Freshies were so particularly thrilled at having upperclassmen wait upon them in place of themselves waiting upon upper classmen that many of them ate little and were satisfied to gaze about them with an entirely new and becoming air of dignity. Others, of course, made splendid use of their opportunity and enjoyed the eatables perhaps more than any other part of the Reception Programme. While "bean of a bang-up!"

And Field House Felix Arose and Said: Saturday's game was too much for Gridiron's nerves and so Gus today dispatched his faithful Field House Felix to the Stadium. The Seniors are enjoying a let up and Shag was teaching the ferocious game to the Intermediates. The second squad were trying out some tricky plays which will keep Queen's or R. M. C. guessing in the final tilt for Eastern Intercollegiate honours.

Gordie Grassick runs like a bullet. Tucker, Chisholm and Dion can tackle and Tommy Arnold and Taylor are making history in the backfield. The Juniors finished their season by downing the eleven from the U. of M. and now are trying out for positions on the Intermediate Squad. O'Meara is a likely looking lad and Shag had his eye on Dalton and one or two others.

Tomorrow will see the Seniors back at work preparing to wipe Ottawa off the map on Saturday. The fighting spirit of the team is as high as ever, and sharpened if anything by their last encounter with the Presbyterians.

TWO CHESS TEAMS ENTER CITY LEAGUE

"B" Men Have First Match Tonight

This evening at 6 in the Union the Class "B" team of the McGill Chess Club will meet the Ivesville Club in the first match of this season, during which it will endeavour to retain the city "B" championship captured last year. Five veteran men will represent McGill, Garelick, Lasky, Edal, Kurner and Garmaise, while Wise, Arts '25, is the remaining member of the team.

This year the Club is also entering a team in Class "C." The first match last Monday, did not turn out well for McGill. K. E. Proulx, Arts '28 being the only winner of the evening.

The following is the schedule for this year's tournament:

- CLASS "B"
- Oct. 28 Ivesville at McGill.
  - Nov. 4 McGill at M. C. C.
  - Nov. 11 M. C. C. at Ivesville.
  - Nov. 25 McGill at Ivesville.
  - Dec. 2 M. C. C. at McGill.
  - Dec. 9 Ivesville at M. C. C.
  - Jan. 13 Ivesville at McGill.
  - Jan. 20 McGill at M. C. C.
  - Feb. 3 M. C. C. at Ivesville.
  - Feb. 17 McGill at Ivesville.
  - March 1 M. C. C. at McGill.
  - March 15 Ivesville at M. C. C.
- CLASS "C"
- Oct. 26 McGill at M. C. C.
  - Nov. 9 Ivesville at McGill.
  - Nov. 16 M. C. C. at Ivesville.
  - Nov. 30 M. C. C. at McGill.
  - Dec. 7 McGill at Ivesville.
  - Dec. 21 Ivesville at M. C. C.
  - Jan. 11 McGill at M. C. C.
  - Jan. 18 Ivesville at McGill.
  - Feb. 1 M. C. C. at Ivesville.
  - Feb. 15 M. C. C. at McGill.
  - Feb. 29 McGill at Ivesville.
  - March 12 Ivesville at M. C. C.

I try to pay the ladies fair For all the grief they have to bear For those who fail to pay respect For all unjustified neglect I'd give my life as valueless To save a lady from distress My heart is true as tempered steel, It will not bend, nor will it yield In this — I'll always try To end a forlorn maiden's sigh, I'll lend a hand and do my share To try and pay the lady's FAIR.

There is a kind of sandwich Which they should not vend, The kind when you bite the beginning The meat slides out the end.

thus engaged a delightful little skit was put on under the direction of Miss J. Scriber. Dancing with and amongst their new found friends followed the freshettes and then the singing of "Hail, Alma Mater" and the rousing rendition of the McGill yell, terminated what a frivolous Freshette was heard to describe as a "bean of a bang-up!"

Gordie Hughes appeared on the Campus today — limping — but he'll be ready for the Varsity match on the seventh.

The production of feldspar in Canada during 1924, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, as shown by the sales of Canadian feldspar in 1924 advanced to a new high level of 44,804 tons valued at $358,540. In 1923 shipments totalled 29,225 tons valued at $237,601. In 1924 shipments comprised 16,147 tons from Quebec deposits and 28,657 tons from Ontario properties. Exports advanced 11,000 tons a total of 37,869 tons, while the imports also showed an increase of 200 tons to a total of 1,921 tons.

According to a recent announcement, the stipend for Rhodes Scholars has been increased to 400 pounds a year. The stipend, originally 300 pounds a year, was increased a few years ago by a bonus of fifty pounds because of the increased cost of living expenses in England. The latest increase becomes effective this month.

BOXERS BEGIN TRAINING FOR COMING BOUTS

Small But Enthusiastic Work-out Yesterday

MOLSON HALL

Promising Material Evident Among New Men—New Heavyweight Noted

Though less than a score of men turned out for the first boxing practice, held in the gymnasium at Molson Hall last night, the practice was conducted in a brisk and business-like manner. The coach put the entire class through physical training and breathing exercises, following these with a short run around the gym. Instruction was given in four of the principal punches, and the men practiced them, alone and with partners. Short rounds of actual sparring concluded proceedings, which will, however, be resumed next Thursday.

The boxing section has been organized on very short notice, which fact probably accounts for the fact that yesterday's meeting was rather a small one. The coach hopes for larger turn-outs very soon, for training is going on continually, and it is important, he states, that beginners get in on the preliminary work. Men of all classes are needed, and new men are particularly urged to appear. The 1700 meet which will be held shortly, is conducted entirely in the interests of the newcomers.

It is expected that numerous bouts will be held throughout the year. There will be the usual intercollegiate meets, and bouts may be staged, as was done last year, at the smokers, members of outside clubs contesting members of the local club.

Several of last year's members were present at the work out last night, notably Bert Taylor and Sol Schieffer. Some very promising material is evident among the new men. Fred Taylor, a new-comer, shows up very well in the heavyweight class. The next work-out of the club will be held on Thursday between five and six.

R.V.C. HISTORY OUTLINED BY MISS HURLBATT

Continued from page one

predecessors." Lord Strathcona College and its graduates have been pioneers in many fields of work. The provision of a Department of Music in the new College, and the arrival in 1899 of Miss Lichtenstein in charge of it was an immediate signal for such a demand for musical education that in three years time it was decided to open a special Department of the University. The McGill Conservatorium of Music with Miss Lichtenstein as Vice-Director.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION Again from the beginning Lord Strathcona College had a Department of Physical Education for all its stu-

ATTENTION R.V.C.

Two poems by Paul Tanaquail, in "Brief Stories Magazine."

I.
TO A GIRL AT A LECTURE.
He is giving you all he knows,
The fruit of an ancient dream
That is vanished the way of the snows,
A dream once beautiful, noble and true
That was melted and swallowed by such as you,
A dream—
(Your mind turns on peach-ice-cream,
On chocolate pudding and malted milk,
Then you stare at your neighbour's nose
Wondering are they real or half alk?
And whether the ferry goes
At six or six-fifteen?
Where did you park your machine?
Is it true one's new hair grows
Quicker for bandoline?
Your cerebrum reels in the throes
Of deciding if yellow or green
Suits you better than rose?
Lauguid, your powder your nose.....)

II.
AMBITION.
Let her but pretend, let her learn her lessons by rote,
Her ideal is to find a husband, not to study or think.
So long as she earns a social C and takes down notes after notes,
All right! To bother about her soul would drive me to drink.
Her purpose is woman's primitive end,
If her studies falter
Is but secondary in import. I forgive the aberration,
I grow merciful when I think of some poor fool at an altar
Aspiring to have her for life, to finish the aberration,
—PAUL TANAQUAIL.

BASKETBALL MEN OUT FOR PRACTICE

Many of Last Year's Team Amongst Large Turn-out

A Basketball practice took place on the floor of the Montreal High School Gym. at 5:15 o'clock last night. About 40 men turned out and were put through a practice by Coach Van Wagner.

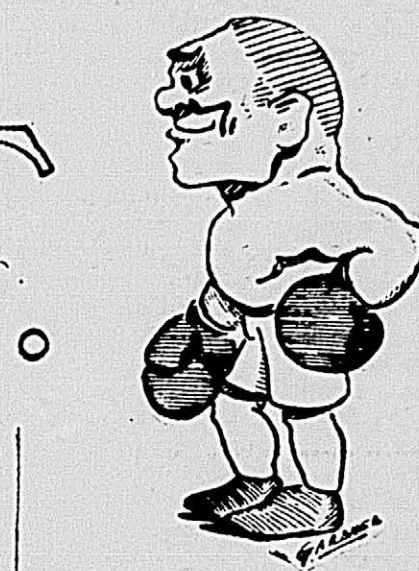

It is gratifying to notice the number of men turning out at the practice. Most of last year's seniors are turning out and hopes are high for a successful season. The men were given a shooting practice which was followed up by combination plays and dribbling.

Amuron who was captain and starred in 1923-24 will turn out this year. Other seniors of last year's team are Captain Quackenbush, Rafalovitch Blumenstein, Philpott and Manson.

Coach Van Wagner wants to get the team in shape as soon as possible, as a Christmas trip is to be undertaken. Six intercollegiate games will be played this year in addition to many games with American Universities. The four teams that make up the league this year are McGill, Varsity, Queen's and Western Varsity. Last year's champions have started practices and are expected to have a strong team.

There will be only one intermediate team this year instead of two as last year, and consequently a strong progression should be forthcoming.

There will be only one intermediate facilities in the gym of the Montreal High School to-night. A large turnout is expected.

men undergraduates in charge of a medical director and a women instructor. In 1906 Miss Cartwright came to take charge of this department. Owing to her zeal classes for teachers gradually grew up, which led to the establishment later of a special Department of the University. So it may be said that from Lord Strathcona's initiative and generosity have grown up and "swarmed off" two separate institutions.

Miss Hurlbatt expressed a sincere hope that R. V. C. graduates would continue to enter other Faculties and Departments now open to women within the University. She also stated that she and Mrs. Vaughan, President of the Canadian Federation of University Women were anxious to supply all possible information concerning graduate scholarships and fellowships. In this way students early in their College course would be stimulated by the possibilities of future study overseas.

"It is well" concluded the Warden "to form hopes and ambitions early; to have some star by which effort may be guided early towards distinction in scholarships. We may group ourselves variously, name our guiding principles variously. As students, we cannot deny the unity of our aim—the pursuit of intellectual and spiritual satisfaction."

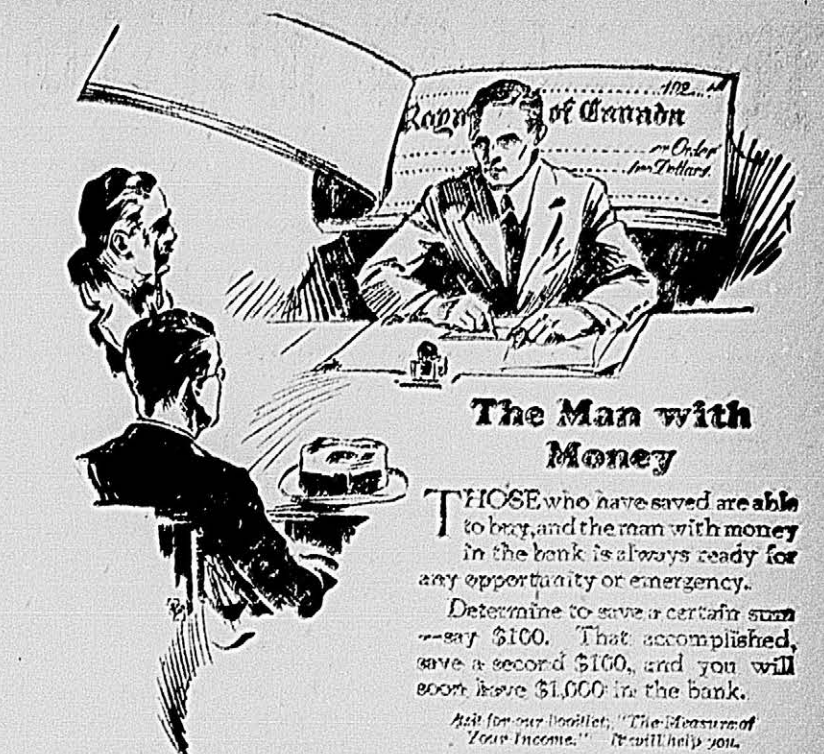

From upsetting aims to setting up pins tells the story of that ex-minister who is now working in a bowling alley to pay for his education here at the Ohio State University.

The wrestlers are to stage a number of bouts at the end of the college year in conjunction with the B. W. and F. Club. There will also be the annual intercollegiate meet which takes place at Kingston next February. The B. W. and F. Intercollegiate Championship was won last year by the University of Toronto.

According to the regulations of the Department of Physical Education it is necessary for all student to be physically examined before they are eligible to take part in wrestling. Credit for physical training attendance is also given to those who are turning out for wrestling.

The B. W. and F. Intercollegiate Championship was won last year by the University of Toronto.

According to the regulations of the Department of Physical Education it is necessary for all student to be physically examined before they are eligible to take part in wrestling. Credit for physical training attendance is also given to those who are turning out for wrestling.

The Royal Bank of Canada

CAPITOL TO-DAY
CORINNE GRIFFITH in "CLASSIFIED" ALSO BUDDY FISHER and his Chesterfield Boys.

IMPERIAL
6 B. F. KEITH—ALBEE VAUDEVILLE ACTS 6 "After Business Hours" Featuring Elaine Hammerstein supported by Lou Tellegen Sat., Sun. and Holidays—Vaudeville at 2.30, 5.30, 8.30. Other Days 2.30 & 8.30.

MEREDITH, HOLDEN, HEWARD & HOLDEN
205 St. James Street, Montreal Barristers and Solicitors

McGibbon, Mitchell, Casgrain, McDougall and Stairs
Victor E. Mitchell, K.C., D.C.L., A. Chalmers-Casgrain, K.C., B.A., M.A., M.C., K.C., Gilbert S. Stairs, K.C., Pierre P. Casgrain, K.C., M.P., John W. P. Ritchie, Leslie G. Bell, S. C. Demers, E. J. Watson, Jacques Senecal, Advocates, Barristers, etc. Royal Trust Chambers, 107 St. James Street MONTREAL

F. E. Meredith, K.C. LL.D., A. R. Holden, K.C., C. G. Heward, K.C., R. C. Holden Jr., P. P. Hutchings.

Electors of St. Antoine

Prosperous industries mean more work at better wages for more Canadians. Protection spells prosperity. Prosperity will bring back many of the 400,000 Canadians who have gone to the United States in the last four years under the ruinous fiscal policy of the King Government.

VOTE FOR BELL
AND BRING THESE CANADIANS BACK HOME!
(St. Antoine Conservative Association).

STUDENTS' DIRECTORY

Class Presidents will please leave lists for the students' Directory at the Union without further delay.

The Union Tuck Shop
Always at your service.

A GREAT deal was said Last Wednesday at the Students Society meeting about McGill SPIRIT. You can give concrete proof of your spirit by patronizing
McGill Institutions

NOTICES

TO LET
In Union, double room, 25 dollars a month. Apply at Secretary's office.

PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY

The first general meeting of the society will be held in the New Medical Building on Wednesday, October 28 at 8 p.m. Prof. A. R. Moore will speak on "A Trip to the Antipodes and South Africa." Students of other faculties invited. Refreshments and smokes.

HART HOUSE

Hart House String Quartette are giving a Recital in the form of a general rehearsal on Thursday, 29th October at 8.30 p.m. in R.V.C. This rehearsal is given only for the Faculty and students of the University. Details will be given later.

CHEMICAL INDUSTRY CLUB

There will be a trip to the Imperial Oil Refineries on Wednesday, October 28th. Party will leave the Chemistry Bldg. at 2 p.m. sharp. All interested in oil refining are welcome.

NOTICE

The regular weekly meeting of "The Presbyterian Students' Missionary Society" will be held in the "Chapel," Diocesan College, University St., on Wednesday evening, 28th October at 8.00 o'clock p.m. An address will be given by Wallace W. Goforth, B.A.

All Presbyterian students are requested to attend, while other students are cordially invited.

CERCLE FRANCAIS

Instead of a regular meeting next Monday night, the members of the Cercle are invited to attend a theatre night on Friday, Oct. 30th, at the Orpheum, where worthy French plays are being represented. Tickets for a reduction of 50 per cent can be obtained from the professors.

C. O. T. C. BATTALION PARADE

All ranks are advised that there will be no parade on Thursday, October 29, on account of the Federal Elections.

J. W. JEAKINS,

Major and Adjutant,

McGILL C.O.T.C.

McGILL WOMEN'S UNION

The McGill Women's Union announce a series of weekly teas for members of the University staff and their wives to be given at the Faculty Club on Thursday afternoons, beginning on Nov. 5th. Women members of the University staff, who are not already members of the McGill Women's Union, are cordially invited to join. The fee for the season is $1 (one dollar), payable to Mrs. E. A. Archibald, 52, The Boulevard, Westmount.

Members have the privilege of bringing guests outside the University on payment of a fee of 25c. The object of the teas is to enable colleagues to become better acquainted with one another, and with the friends of the University.

McGILL CHESS CLUB

The following members of the "B" Team are requested to turn out at the Union at 8 o'clock this evening for the game with the Iversville Club: Garelick, Lidsky, Edel, Kursner, Garmaise and Wise.

ANNUAL BOARD

There will be a meeting of the Annual Board in the Annual room of the Union on Friday, October 30th, at 5 o'clock.

CHEMISTRY COLLOQUIUM

The third colloquium of the session will be held Wednesday afternoon in the C. & M. Building. The subject for discussion will be "Thomas Thomson and the Atomic Theory," introduced by P. H. Yorston. Visitors will be welcome.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE

The next meeting of the Junior Prom Committee will be held at 5 o'clock on Friday, in the music room of the Union. All faculties must have their representatives present.

LITERARY AND DEBATING SOCIETY

There will be a meeting of the executive of the Literary and Debating Society at 5 o'clock to-day, in the lounge room of the Union. All are urged to attend, as the business to be discussed is of the most vital importance.

MANDOLIN CLUB

Owing to an error in yesterday's Daily, the costume for the picture to be taken to-night was wrongly given. It will be white trousers and sweaters, the sweaters to be issued, white shirts and black bow tie. Everybody will be in the Ball Room at 7.30 p.m. Those not having the uniform should turn out just the same.

An engagement has been made to play at the Palace Theatre during the week of November 22nd.

ROOTERS' BAND

There will be a meeting of the Rooters' Band in the Union at five.

ATHLETICS

TRACK!!

All equipment must be turned in at the Field House at once. The Track room will be open daily between 4 and 5 p.m.

SWIMMING AND WATER-POLO

Water-polo practices will be held every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week from 5.30-6.30 p.m. All interested are earnestly requested to attend. Gym attendance will be granted from 5.30 to 6.30 only.

ROWING CLUB

Applicants for membership in the Rowing Club will please leave a note in the Union, addressed D. Logan, Rowing Club. Applications should contain name in full, weight, class secured in physical examinations, faculty and year. Applicants are expected to have a try-out on the machines under the coach's supervision and leave their names with him before their names will be considered by the Executive. Coaching hours 5-6 p.m. daily.

HARRIERS

There will be a Harrier run every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at five o'clock. All Harriers and those interested are invited to turn out.

MED-ARTS

The Med-Arts rugby game will be played on the campus on Wednesday afternoon at 5.30.

GYMNASTICS!!

Work-outs will be held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5.00 p.m. in the gymnasium of the Montreal High School. All are cordially invited to attend, especially first and second year men. Physical training credits are given.

ARTS RUGBY

Will members of the Arts rugby team please turn in their equipment to Bill or Dick at Molson's Hall.

J. W. MURRAY.

MEDICINE-LAW RUGBY GAME
Will all Medicine players be at Molson Hall at 2 o'clock, as game is being played at 2.30 o'clock.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Basketball practices will be held for Arts and Commerce on Tuesday and Thursday, and for all other faculties Wednesday and Friday of this week in the M.H.S. Gym, at 5.15. Everyone is asked to turn out.

WRESTLING

The next practice will be held on Friday at 5 p.m., at Strathcona Hall. New men are encouraged to turn out, as special attention is being given to preliminary instruction. Attendance will be given to first and second year men.

BOXERS

Boxing practices Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 5 to 6 p.m. Coach Bert Light will look after all newcomers. First year men are especially invited to attend.

DENTALS, LOOK!

All men on the Dental Interfaculty Rugby team are asked to attend a practice at 4.30 p.m. to-day. Meet at Upper Field above Stadium, and be on time. Any new men who wish to try out with the present team will be given a chance. No uniforms necessary for this practice. Everybody out.

G. A. ROBINSON.

R. V. C.

PARTIALS

This year partial students in any faculty have the option of paying $2.50 to the Bursar as membership fee of the M.W.S.E.

Until this has been paid a student may not take part in any student activity.

FRANCES S. STOCKING,
Pres. M.W.S.E.

R.V.C. UNDERGRADUATE SOCIETY
A meeting will be held on Thursday, October 29th at one o'clock in the Common Room, Business: Amendment of the Constitution. 150 students must be present.

LEILA E. ARGUE,
Pres.

R.V.C. '29 ATTENTION!

Every member of this year must attend the meeting of the Undergraduate Society on Thursday when the constitution will be amended. This is

PIERRE STATES BEEF POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

Cafeteria Patronage On Increase Now

GIVES STATISTICS

Will Renew the Turkey Diners if Given Co-operation

"The union cafeteria has done more business this month, which yet has four more days to run, than it did during the whole month of October 1924," declared Pierre of the cafeteria in an interview last night. "Already more meal tickets have been sold this month, and more money has been taken in than during the October of 1924. It is gratifying to see that more students are patronizing their own cafeteria."

When questioned as to what foods were most popular, he said: "Beef is the most popular, while more milk is drunk than any other beverage. As the winter comes on more tea is drunk."

As an example he submitted the following list of food which is consumed per week:

10 lbs. of beef; 3 loins of beef; 200 lbs. of fish; 200 pounds of pork sausage; 2 whole calves; 150 pounds of venison; 6 legs of pork; 6 loins of pork; 60 pounds of bacon; 60 pounds calves liver; 60 pounds of frankfurters; 30 pounds of cooked ham; 150 dozen of eggs; 144 gallons of milk. The average number of students who eat their meals at the cafeteria per day is:

Breakfast 200; Luncheon 400; Dinner 100; Afternoon tea 100.

The average student breakfast consists of grapefruit, toast, marmalade and coffee. More ham and eggs are sold for supper than for breakfast.

"This is because the students are always in a hurry for their morning lectures," Pierre explained.

ICE CREAM HEADS

"Ice-cream predominates as the favorite dessert, while pastry runs a close second," said Pierre. "Prunes are always in demand, and are kept on the counter throughout the whole day. Honey jam and marmalade are also consumed quite extensively."

To efficiently supply the wants of all of Pierre's customers there are four girls behind the counter with one on short orders, two on the dishes, an assistant chef, a pastry-cook and two general helpers in the kitchen. There are also two students who work during the lunch hour, and if business warrants it, a third will be added.

"Like all other people," went on Pierre, "I have my worries, the biggest one of which is during the lunch hour when a 'hold-up' occurs in the a matter of vital importance to all first year students.

M. W. S. E. A.—GROUP II

A list has been posted on the notice board of the R.V.C. Athletic Association which all those who wish to play basketball this year are requested to sign.

It is hoped that as many students as possible from the various faculties and departments will sign the list as all women students of McGill who pay the Universal fee of the M. W. S. E. and are not registered in the School of Physical Education are members of Group II of the M. W. S. E. A. and are entitled to its privileges.

As the list will be taken down to-day, it is requested that all students concerned will sign immediately.

FRANCES SECORD
Basketball manager.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST

Standard black leather note book containing surgery and medicine lectures. Will finder please leave with Crawford at New Med. Bldg. J. S. A. Miller, Med. '28.

LOST

One gold-plated fountain pen in or around the Arts Bldg. on Thursday, Oct. 22. "T.B.S." engraved on barrel. Finder please return same to Janitor, Arts Bldg.

LOST

At the Stadium, or around College grounds—on Sunday afternoon—a Parker Duofold Pen. Philip Cumine, Engineering Bldg.

LOST

McGill Handbook containing tickets. Please leave with Janitor of Arts Bldg.

E. WOLSTEIN, Arts '28.

What's On

TO-DAY

2.00—Chemical Industry Club.
2.30—Med.-Law Rugby game.
4.30—Dental Rugby practice.
4.45—Musical Association Meeting.
5.00—Harriers' Run.
5.00—ROOTERS' BAND.
5.00—Gym. Club at High School.
5.00—Literary and Debating Executive.
7.30—Mandolin Club.
8.00—C. O. T. C. Medical Lecture.
8.00—Pharmaceutical Society.
8.00—Chess Club.

COMING

Oct. 29.
Hart House string quartette recital.
R.V.C. Undergrad. Society.
Choral Society.
Boxing Practice.
Oct. 30.
Junior Prom Committee.
Annual Board.
Oct. 31.
McGill vs. Montreal.
McGill Cup Series.
Nov. 1.
Macabaque Circle in Union.
Nov. 3.
Historical Club meeting.
Nov. 5.
Economics Club meeting.

line. This is not due to the inadequacy of the staff but to the students themselves, who when they reach the counter, forget what they want, and so unnecessarily delay the service."

"Yet despite this, I will treat the boys to another series of turkey dinners, which will be run off in the near future," Pierre concluded with one of his general smiles which daily greets those who come to partake of his toothsome dainties.

THE CUB GROWS.

(H. Hum in the McGill News)

I trust that I am divulging no editorial secret when I say that I was asked to write for the News. More than that, I was asked to write as one on "the threshold of journalism." I am still at a loss to know how I should take the request. While I freely admit that the four months I have spent in newspaper work hardly constitute a career, still "on the threshold" is not quite a compliment. But there you are.

Standing on the threshold, then, gazing into the edifice of journalism, I see a broad stairway leading to what I, in my ignorance, deem the heights, and to what old newspaper men will tell you is only the attic. I see, too, a narrow flight of steps descending to the cellar where I am told one finds the beasts known as managing editors, and mayhap, a city editor or two.

The threshold exhausted, I will presume to speak about the guest-room, to which I have been shown. Not fluttering that to one who expected to be taken into the family, to share the bed and board of the dramatic critic or at least of the editorial writer.

The guest-room, I find, harboring a half-dozen visitors. There is Standish, blunt-featured, red-headed and experienced as to the way it is done in England. Not that he stands for all that is English. Far from it. At least, 2,800 miles from it, in a westerly direction, I note also, Jamieson, the live-wire, one forgetter, he of the straw hat, the loud voice, the over-ready, over-hearty handshake. News? If there's none he makes it. If there's a medium, his is the front

Will Not Divulge Right To Vote --- Age Question?

That the argument used by those who oppose women suffrage on the ground that many women would rather not register than divulge their age is valid, was pointedly brought home to McGill yesterday when on a notice posted in the R. V. C. to ascertain for the Daily the number of women voters at college only 35 women students out of the whole female student body of more than 300 admitted that they are 21 years of age or more.

It is thought by those responsible for this investigation that the small number is grossly inaccurate and in no way indicative of the powerful influence the McGill women will exercise in the elections tomorrow.

The pitiful lack of support on the part of the women undergraduates in this attempt to ascertain the number of female voters is attributed, not to a lack of political consciousness but to a certain feminine antipathy to make public what is felt in the part of many, to be doubly secret.

page, with continuation on page 16, column 4.

That quiet lad in the corner, 30 years of age, of 1764 Horton Row, Notre Dame de Grace, was, but yesterday, in charge of a parish. He has saved many souls, but he has yet to muffle a scoop. His sense of right and wrong is well-developed, but his nose sense . . . ah, well.

Remark that earnest, eager, ingratiating youngster with the over-bright eyes. That's Simpson. He is being tried out on the police beat. For two straws, he'll call you "bozo." Not that he is familiar. Just friendly. Most of the news that goes to the police beat comes over the telephone—if you go after it. His duty is to go after it. He never forgets to ask all the questions, except, perhaps, how many were killed, where the accident happened, and a few other details. The queer-looking type who is lecturing him has outstayed his welcome. I am informed. He knew how the accident, the murder, the drowning should have happened. Just how did it occur was never any concern of his.

I must ask you, as does James Branch Cabell, not to meddle with my allegors of the guest-room when I draw your attention to two other of the occupants. There is Miss Whitby and Miss Barr. I need not further describe them than to tell you that Miss Whitby is powdering her nose, and Miss Barr is polishing her glasses—they steam so when one comes into a room, don't they. Miss Barr has had quite a bit of experience in a small way. She is more than anxious to please, but she hasn't as yet found out what it is all about. Miss Whitby is wise to everything, and passes an accident without a second glance. But one gets fed up with doing nothing, doesn't one?

And the last, and the latest but one of the guests is myself. The only difference between myself and the others is that I am invaluable. But it doesn't show in the pay cheque. Neither do the seven years that I spent in college, and the two degrees that I earn—that I wangled. I am also, or aspire to be, a journalist rather than a newspaper man. Do you know the difference? It is made clear to every cub by the desk during the first week. A newspaper man falls down a manhole. A journalist is saved by his swelled head. A journalist describes the wreaths and floral offerings in the carriages that head the cortege. A reporter gives the name of the deceased. It was only by cleverly disguising myself as a potential reporter that I managed to get a job on the paper. I can give you every assurance that the seven years that I spent, etc., were no very great help.

I have been to three murders, accidents, trials, inquests, funerals, meetings, discourses (circus?), church services, theatres, lectures. I have interviewed, I have slouched, I have provided for news. I have stolen news. I have lied for news. I have re-hashed news. I have used twelve note-books and a gross of pencils, one penknife and three typewriter ribbons.

There is nothing more to be said about the guest-room and its inhabitants. As a guest you would not ask me to criticize my paying hosts. If you are anxious to know more about me (and who is not?), ask Standish, or Jamieson, or he of Horton Row, or Simpson, or even Miss Barr. But don't ask Miss Whitby.

The student—"I don't deserve an 'A' in that course. I never studied and I don't think it is fair to the other members of the class."

The motorist—"I only get eight miles to the gallon."

The waiter—"Don't order any of those beans, they are three days old."

The freshman—"I don't mind to wear this green cap. I think it looks collegiate."

The athlete—"I'm not a good athlete. I just make people think that I am."
The she—"I don't love John, but I have the only Alpha Gadget pin in the house, and it is nice to have someone to take you to everything. I don't love him, but he is a wonderful dumb-bell."

British Consols Cigarettes

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

12-15-20-25 also in attractive tins of 50 and 100
The Largest Independent Brand in America

For the convenience of

BRITISH CONSOLS USERS IN McGILL UNIVERSITY the card pictures can be exchanged at the TUCK SHOP, McGILL UNION

Herbert Tareyton London Cigarettes

"There's something about them
you'll like"
20 for 35¢

For Herbert
your Tareyton
Pipe Smoking Mixture

POWTER'S PROMPT & PUNCTUAL PRINTER

Limited

All that the name implies
SERVICE

SOCIETY AND
COMMERCIAL PRINTING
MAIN 2284, 47 ST. JOHN ST.

Don't Miss the point!

How many good stories are ruined by missing the point! Some are too long. Some too short. In some you can't find the point. But in pencils—the point is even vastly more important than in stories. You simply can't afford to miss it. Must be always sharp—always dependable. You'll find this only in

EVERSHARP

50c to $10.00
also

WAHL PENS
McGILL UNION TUCK SHOP
AND EVERYWHERE.

200 STUDENTS

USE OUR TABLES EVERY DAY

200 MORE

MUST NEEDS LEARN HOW TO PLAY

So Take This Cue And Get Your Cue

And Learn The Bloomin Game

Then As You Strive, So We Shall Thrive

'Cause Thrift's Our Middle Name

BAND PRACTICE AT 5 O'CLOCK TO-NIGHT AT THE UNION